"The ultimate focus of the rest of my life is to eradicate the use of child soldiers & eliminate even the thought of using children as instruments of war."

– LGen. Roméo Dallaire

A quarter of a million child soldiers participate in armed conflict around the world today. These boys and girls are routinely abducted from their families, brutally abused, and forced to commit unspeakable acts upon their friends, families and neighbours. To date, the international community's response has largely been reactive, focusing on post-conflict rehabilitation. Yet, the recruitment of children has not slowed.

LGen. Roméo Dallaire was first exposed to the use of child soldiers during the 1994 Rwandan genocide (where he served as Force Commander of the UN mission). He has subsequently committed the rest of his life to ending the use of children in armed conflict. He has founded The Roméo Dallaire Child Soldiers Initiative to break new ground in halting this atrocity. The Initiative partners with military, police and peacekeeping forces, to equip them with the tools for preventing the recruitment of child soldiers.

On Saturday, April 27, 2013, The Roméo Dallaire Child Soldiers Initiative is hosting a gala evening in conjunction with the Canadian premiere of the documentary film Fight Like Soldiers, Die Like Children (based on LGen. Dallaire's recently published best-selling book.

This compelling new film, produced by White Pine Pictures (producers of the Emmy award-winning Shake Hands with the Devil), will be a special presentation of the Hot Docs Canadian International Documentary Festival.

The Toronto evening begins with red-carpet arrivals at the theatre and includes prime seating for the screening, followed by a VIP reception and gala dinner at the Royal Ontario Museum.

All funds raised will go directly to scale up the effort to "KEEP CHILDREN OFF THE FRONT LINES".

Join us for this very special evening and be inspired by LGen. Roméo Dallaire, a true Canadian hero and a leader for the 21st century.

"I will not rest until we end the use of child soldiers once and for all.

Join us.

The challenge is before you,
screaming for you to take it on.

The time is now and the moment is yours to grasp."
